Wednesday, August 1st - 3:00 PM: Kamishibai Japanese Storytelling

Japanese story for children through Kamishibai storytelling. After the reading, kids can create their own Kamishibai story, and make some candy-sushi.

Saturday, August 4th - 2:00 PM: Woody Guthrie's Dust Bowl Ballads with Ross Moore

In 1940, Woody Guthrie made his landmark recordings Dust Bowl Ballads, forever capturing the plight of the Oakies and their migration to California. Enjoy a live performance by Ross Moore of these deeply moving and often humorous songs, and learn about Woody and how he became the "Voice of the Oakies". Ross Moore is a singer/songwriter, storyteller and educator who has performed at schools, museums, libraries and community affairs for over 20 years. Originally from Kentucky he now lives in Solana Beach. He published his first novel Third Monday in May last year.

Wednesday, August 8th - 3:00 PM: Day of Science

Come and enjoy learning, making, and exploring some science activities at the library. There will be face painting, food, and fun for all. Don't forget to finish your activity sheet for the summer reading program.

Friday, August 10th - 3:00 PM: Back to School Event at the Lakeside Community Center

Join us at the Lakeside Community Center located at 9841 Vine St. for a Back to School event for the community. There will be booths, vendors, and free school supplies and giveaways. For all kids in grades K - 12.

Saturday, August 11th - 2:00 PM: An Afternoon with Alex Koppel on the Piano

After Alex was diagnosed with autism at an early age, he became driven to excel in life. Alex loves playing the piano while mastering musical pieces and cover songs. He enjoys playing a variety of music, including Ragtime, classical, Billy Joel, Beatles, Vince Guaraldi, Jazz, and movie themes. Alex visits Disneyland each month and enjoys playing piano on Main Street. Currently, he's posted over 100 hits on youtube.com.

Saturday, August 18th - 2:00 PM: Rock Painting with Dawn

Join us for some creative fun by painting rocks. All supplies will be provided.
